

WEATHER FACTS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Ohio: Fair, with light rain.

SPRINGFIELD, O., October 26, 1887.

MUST HAVE 'EM!

We may live without poetry, music and art; we may live without conscience and live without heart.

The poet didn't sing just that way, but it's the tune for the practical man.

"COME HIGH."

At The When they don't. We are offering better inducements now to buyers of trousers than we have ever offered before.

We equal custom work as to appearance, and save you greatly as to price.

Just received a line of white waiters' jackets at $1.00 and $1.25.

THE WHEN,

25 and 27 West Main Street.

P. S.—In our Hat department we also guarantee fits, and the latest and best in everything. Low prices rule.

ARCADE GROCERY

SARATOGA CHIPS,

Glaze Cherries, French; Glaze

Apricots, French; Crystalized Strawberries, French.

Crystallized Cherries, French.

PEPERS, BUNCH

RAISINS!

Layer Ondura Raisins, Citron, Lemon Peel, Orange

Pear, Lemon Peel, Raisins,

Unpeeled Peaches, Apricots,

Blackberries, Pitted Cherries, California Almonds, Tarragon Almonds, Buckwheat

Flour, Cape Cod Cranberries,

Jersey Sweet Potatoes,

Cocoa Nuts, Spanish Onions,

Malaga Grapes, Java Raisins, Sweet Citrus, Hominy, Honey, Beans, The finest lot of Crackers in the city. The above goods are all new and fresh.

J. M. MUFFEY,

REMEMBER

THAT

HARTMAN,

MORGAN &

COMPANY

ARE HANDLING THE BEST

COAL

IN THE MARKET.

OUR LACKAWANA

—AND—

SCRANTON

Is First-class. Call and See Us.

OFFICE:

SOUTH LIMESTONE STREET

PHONE 135.

FOREST HOUSE,

NO. 27 W. JEFFERSON STREET,

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO.

WANTED—A few first-class gentlemen boarders, good, first-class table board, and in fact, every accommodation in house pleasant. We have in connection good and all conveniences of a first-class house. The house is situated in a park and convenient to all depots, also postoffice and telegraph offices.

D. WISSINGER, PROP'R.

BAD DAY FOR SALOONS.

A Massacre in One Grog Shop and Another One Blown up by Dynamite.

Benjamin F. Butler Talking for the Anarchists—Various Items of Interest

From Various Parts of the Country.

By the Associated Press.

ALPENA, Mich., Oct. 28.—Late yesterday afternoon people who went into Phil Crosby's saloon, found Crosby lying insensible, in a back room, his head crushed by a blow and covered with blood. Near him lay a man named John O'Hara, with a bullet wound in his head. Both were unconscious. O'Hara died last night, after stating that he was shot by Crosby. Crosby was still alive this morning, unconscious. The cause of the tragedy is unknown.

A BLOODY PLOT.

In Which Spies, the Anarchists, Was a Star of the Prosecution and Ingotious

End Now First Unfolded.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 28.—It has just come to light that in February, 1885, when August Spies, the convicted Chicago anarchist, visited this city, and delivered a lecture, he endeavored to organize among the workmen here a movement similar to that which resulted in the Haymarket tragedy in Chicago. On the morning after the lecture Spies visited a saloon kept by Adolph Goetz, now a brewer, in company with two men, and explained his plans in detail to them. One of the men was a sympathizer with Spies, and explained his plans to the other two men, who were not, however, to be trusted. The plot was unfounded, but the loss of his temper and the purchase of firearms and ammunition, but for some reason their plans never materialized.

"MONEY OR LI."

Alternat ve offered by Mexican Bandits to Texas Merchants.

GALVESTON, Oct. 28.—A special from Brownsville, Tex., says that a reign of terror prevails among the wealthy merchants at Rio Grande City, owing to the raids of Mexican bandits against their lives. Several have been killed, and several have received anonymous communications stating that unless certain amounts of money are placed where the writers can obtain them they will annihilate the entire families of those to whom the communications are addressed. The recipients of the letters are afraid to leave their homes to visit their ranches. The governor has been asked for protection.

How the Rebel Chief Was Received at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The democratic party, having given the necessary amount of cordials, has hung itself. The joyous event took place in Macomb yesterday at the rebel reunion. Democrats in Washington and particularly Ohio democrats, since their fate is to be decided so soon, are downcast tonight. This revival of the southern rebellion at this time, they argue, will drive the last nail in the democratic coffin, which will be carried to its last place on November 8. The spectacle of a rebel reunion at this time, they argue, is a demonstration of the confidence of the southern states in the democratic candidate now before the people and of the confidence of the people in the democratic candidate now before the people and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

democratic candidate now before the people

and of the confidence of the people in the

ARGUING FOR THE ANARCHISTS.

J. R. Tucker Makes a Strong Plea for a Washington, Oct. 28.—At 10:30 p. m. yesterday Chief Justice Waite announced that the U. S. Supreme court was ready to take up the Anarchist cases. General Butler stated that he represented two of the condemned anarchists, and that his colleague, John Randolph Tucker, was ready to open the argument in behalf of the petitioners. The court allowed each side three hours, and, without further delay, Mr. Tucker began his argument, adverting his efforts to the question of the reversal of the judgment of the Illinois court.

He did not go over the whole record of the case and show the grounds for reversal of the judgment of the Illinois court, but to show that this was a case within the jurisdiction of the supreme court, which justified the issuance of the writ.

"The practice of the supreme court," he insisted, "showed that it had not been astute to find reasons for not issuing writs of error, but that it had been diligent in finding reasons on which to base its decision.

All that was necessary to do in this case was to show a possible conflict between the state and federal states, and this he proposed to do. But he went beyond this importance of this case warranted the court to issue the writ, if there was any, as to the court's jurisdiction. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

tion. He was, he said, at the court's jurisdic-

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS.

Minstrels at the Grand—Carleton Opera

Company at Black's—Clara Louise

Kellogg.

Tomorrow (Saturday) Rice, Hort and Ryons' minstrels will appear at the Grand opera house in two performances, matinee and evening. The matinee is especially for ladies and children, so that they may be afforded an opportunity to see a fine minstrel performance. Both performances will conclude with that laughable burlesque, "Sarah Heartburn," in which Wm. Henry Rice appears in the lead-